(There is no greater love)

Cause on the real ya'll there is no greater love
People try all the time try to break us up
We keep it high up in the sky
I gotta take it up...

Fucking up my metal when I think about you
In my room plott'n hot starting reaching up to you Cause at first the situation had me deep in doubt But the beauty even doubt the beast and I can't be without (love)
Is by far the most dangerous subject to touch yet
You be acting like it's lust? yeah right.
Would lost have you up at 5 writing a text?
Trying to get a thought up off of you chest.
Or her all on your chest. gotta work so you call in to rest for second
Then you call her for sex and she's there in a second
And her parents is stressing cause she missed whole semester
Fucking around with this peasant name blu and juliet is you
And two connected is one. fun is endless, getting drunk and fucking bitches is thru Son's back with the moon and balance how we shine on the planet and you try To understand it but you can't cause...

(There is no greater love)

Cause on the real ya'll there is no greater love
People try all the time try to break us up
We keep it high up in the sky
I gotta take it up...

Fucking up my mental when I think about you Cause the truth is I know I can't live without you on my side
At the time I was fin'n and the beauty's been thinking about
The beast and she can't be without (love)

Plus all the drama that's included with it
You heard the song still rush like the foolish it Stuck like the clueless in love with every movement she makes
Even that ugly shit she do with her face
When she's busting with cha but u love it so you fucking with her
And she knows it she just wanna make you fucking kiss her, make up
She throw a lil blush to get make up but she don't needed anyways
Silk skin pretty face. Horny as a devil with a lil bitchy ways but she all natural Cause I don't like my titties fake. and her attitude is bitchy but hey what can I say.
I love it when I tell the chick to chill and give me space but she can't cause...

(There is no greater love)

Cause on the real ya'll there is no greater love
People try all the time try to break us up
We keep it high up in the sky
I gotta take it up...

Fucking up my mental when I think about you
And all the lil shit we use to speak about life Having kids, getting married, try to lease a house til we can buy one
So we can find one.
With a lil room for Osolito when the time comes.
Plus a studio for all my people tryna find some inner inspiration
Like the way my girl is tied but I still have a meal waiting for me when my Rhymes done. What a feeling when your life's done building
And your chilling in your house with a wife, a few children
Feeling like you struck a million. looking at your kids like
"shit this is my son, this nigga came from nuts"
Same feeling when you heard "Time's Up"
Same feeling when I first heard Com' buss
I use to love her but I found other kinds of...
So I left her like I really really tried but I can't cause...

(There is no greater love)

Cause on the real ya'll there is no greater love
People try all the time try to break us up

We keep it high up in the sky
I gotta take it up...
