How it feels when life is leaving you behind and you're trying to catch up so hard.
How it feels when death is beside you and you're trying to take our last beath.

We are flashes in the darkness like pale morning stars with their last trembling light while the sun vanishes for ever we are dremms kept in vain

How it feels
when all the stars are falling down and you're flying with to them How it feels when you're all alone and your heart is crying with pain.

Were dying every new morning as if we'd never been were loosing ourselves inside the greatness of infinity.
Were dying every new morning as if we'd never been.

[Chorus:]
Were left for rough loneliness stone upon our lives are befalling our years bitter wisom into the unhealed time.

How it feels
when all the stars are falling down
and you're flying with to them
How it feels when you're all alone
and your heart is crying with pain.

Were dying every new morning
as if we'd never been
were loosing ourslebe
Were dying every new morning
as if we'd never been.

[Chorus:]
Were left for rough loneliness
stone upon our lives are befalling through our years.
