Walking on the lifeless time of mind searching for dream drops to harden the aura of my heart my inner world is torn apart In gray clouds of lies in the sphere of illusion wandering in the wind of desertion

I let myself to the waves of madness that crucified my time in an ineffable chaos

[Chorus:]

The vultures of loneliness are folding their wings under a sun of despair.
Awakening the nightmares thats bleeding from the crown of life The words are falling dead as the nights rage is approaching the sound of silence is perching inside me drowning every breath of hate

You can feel me you can see the future od a world thats dying inside me.
Find the pieces which are drowning in the endless sea of time.

Walking on the lifeless time of mind
searching for dream drops
to harden the aura of my heart
my inner world is torn apart
I let myself to the waves of madness
that crucified my time in an ineffable chaos

[Chorus]
