believe it now
I've been tracking you across the sky but I guess you never wonder why just a head stuck in the clouds again so feel it now I've been staring hard all night and day

look at you your hands are shaking shut your eyes it's time for waking feel it

when I look at you your hands are shaking speed of sound a wave is breaking trust me now your race is almost over can you feel it now your race is nearly over?

victory now is mine for taking
feel it

heart it pounds there's something breaking
can you feel it now your race is nearly over?
