I've run and lost everything
I've cried and screamed to the heavens
I've seen the blackest of nights
I've kicked the wall to the ground

Nothing's never ever been easy
Nothing's ever been so real
Nothing's never ever been easy
Nothing's ever been so real for me

For every time I had to cry
I had to believe even stronger
Even had to watch you walk away
For every tear that had to fall
I had to get up on my own
That's the only way to be myself
For every promise you broke
Mr Man you should know
No tears, no fears, still here

I've seen a million faces
Been to a thousand a places
I know every word
That Mr Man is going to say

And you haven't stopped me yet
I will never lose my faith
No, you haven't stopped me yet
I will never lose my faith in me

For every time I had to cry
I had to believe even stronger
Even had to watch you walk away
For every tear that had to fall
I had to get up on my own
That's the only way to be myself

For every promise you broke
Mr Man you should know
No tears, no fears, still here
For every day that you stole

Mr Man you should know
For every promise you broke
Mr Man you should know
No tears, no fears, still here
No tears, no fears, still here

For every time I had to cry
I had to believe even stronger
Even had to watch you walk away
For every tear that had to fall
I had to get up on my own
That's the only way to be myself

For every time I had to cry
I had to believe even stronger
Even had to watch you walk away
For every tear that had to fall
I had to get up on my own
That's the only way to be myself
Myself
Myself
