D. Roeser -)

Blood of bat, tail of newt Wing of metal, gold or steel Fight of health, flash of pain
Staff of life, or poison rain

If he really thinks we're the devil, then let's send 'em to hell

Fast food, fast cars
Fast women, movie stars
Time of trouble, time of trial
Turn to Memphis, pray awhile

If he really thinks we're the devil, then let's send 'em to
hell

Anxious lovers, bums in the street
Jackals in waistcoats, men in sheets
Purple mountains, waves of grain
Grace of God, thy will be done

If he really thinks we're the devil, then let's send 'em to
hell

If he really thinks we're the devil, then let's send 'em to
hell

(shouted) If he really thinks we're the devil, then let's send 'em to hell
