Well I guess I don't get out much
I've never been that kind of guy
I like to keep it all real simple
Don't ask me why

And I've never been to L.A.
I guess I just don't have the time
But I've got a friend who lives there
And she's doing fine

I wish they'd sell California in a bottle
Maybe that way we could go there all the time
And if they'd sell California in a bottle
Well I'd never leave home, I'd never leave home

And I've never seen the ocean
But I hear it's quite a sight
Well I saw it once on T.V.
But I was all messed up in the middle of the night

I wish they'd sell California in a bottle
Maybe that way we could go there all the time
And if they'd sell California in a bottle
Well I'd never leave home, I'd never leave home

I wish they'd sell California in a bottle
Maybe that way we could go there all the time
If they'd sell California in a bottle
I'd never leave home, I'd never leave home
I'd never leave home, I'd never leave home
