"Gave Him Voice"

So the gods gave him a voice, but they didn't give him a brain
He felt he had no choice but im sure it was the same As anybody else, had before he did, high up on the top shelf
Socialise; don't give in to social lies

So the girl gave him a voice, and then she sucked him like a gnat
He felt he had no choice but we knew he was more than that
So all that matters now, is who, what, where, and how Down on one knee he bows

Socialise; don't give in to social lies

When's it going to sink thru your skin?
How the hell did this shit get in?

Socialise
Don't give up till, you listen and decide Social lies
Don't give in to the voices in your mind
