My eyes, too close together, eyes see the future
And I see what suits you
Your' lies stitched up together, I'll decide whether You tell the truth

Get up
Im inside your head
Get out
Im inside your bed
Looking thru the eyes of a mad man
Looking thru his eyes

His thoughts badly fragmented they say he's demented
Thalamus segmented
His legs weak to uphold him, you can't download him
Only his eyes

Speechless I am speechless
I really don't need this, only your disguise

Im inside your head
