Everything you've ever wanted
Has come with its concerns
I'm avoiding your temptation
By remembering lessons learned
Now I dance around your fire
With the chance of getting burned

And now I'm too involved to turn you away
And I am so in tune to everything you say

And it's too hard to turn you down
When you won't let me turn around
I'm in love with what you say
And that's exactly why I stay
Out of my way

I could follow your directions
But then I'd pay my price
You take my imperfections
And you offer your advice
Your critical collections
Of never thinking twice

And now we're at the place where we should walk away
But just looking at your face it's enough to make me stay

And it's too hard to turn you down
When you won't let me turn around
I'm in love with what you say
And that's exactly why I stay
Out of my way

And now I'm too involved to turn you away
Will I follow through when it comes down to you
Or turn you away

It's too hard to turn you down
When you won't let me turn around
I'm in love with what you say
And that's exactly why I stay

It's too hard to turn you down
When you won't let me turn around
I'm in love with what you say
And that's exactly why I stay
Out of my way
You're out of my way
