Exit East
"I Will Save You"

None of your friends can change you
You feel that life just hates you now
And you just want to hide
What makes you think they need you?
What makes you think that you can run?

Just don't you even try
You know my love is for you
You know that I will chase you
You know that I will take you

When you see me, I will save you
I will pull you out
When believing looks deceiving
I won't let you down
Nobody wants you when you're gone
And everything is leaving

At one time someone hurt you
Yeah, one time someone put you out
But you still hang around
What makes you think I'll leave you?
What makes you think I'll leave you now?

Why don't you even try
To know that I won't hurt you?

You know that I will hold you
You know that I will love you

When you see me, I will save you
I will pull you out
When believing looks deceiving
I won't let you down
Nobody wants you when you're gone
And everything is leaving

I've seen everything you've ever done
You'll ever be don't run away
I came to save you, always been the way
Follow me I'll lead you home

When you see me, I will save you
I will pull you out
When believing looks deceiving
I won't let you down
Nobody wants you when you're gone
And everything is leaving

When you see me, I will save you
I will pull you out
When believing looks deceiving
I won't let you down
Nobody wants you when you're gone
And everything is leaving
