The love of God
Is a passionate flame
An all-consuming fire
Forever burning in our hearts
He is our one desire

The world is shaking
The dead are waking
Because of light
Because of the love of Jesus Christ

His love has given us life
His love has opened our eyes
His love is a radiant light
His love is a radiant light

The love of God
Reaches to the skies
His faithfulness to the heavens
Darkness dies in the light of his love
We come alive in his presence

The world is shaking
The dead are waking
Because of light
Because of the love of Jesus Christ
His love has given us life
His love has opened our eyes
His love is a radiant light
His love is a radiant light

His love has given us life
His love has opened our eyes
His love is a radiant light
His love is a radiant light

His love has given us life
His love has opened our eyes
His love is a radiant light
His love is a radiant light

His love has given us life

His love has opened our eyes
His love is a radiant light
His love is a radiant light

His love has given us life
His love has opened our eyes
His love is a radiant light
His love is a radiant light
