No way to halt them
Resign to your fate
Do you let them drag you down
So they can celebrate
Anarchys rising again
To rid their hellish schemes
Lets all rule ourselves
Let god save the queen
They're anti uk
Whom do we trust
With their pre-election lies
All they give are promises
Policies to hypnotise
Smooth tongued liars
Intelluctual men
Now their power crazy
They'll destroy us all in the end
They're anti uk
Anarchys rising again
To rid their hellish schemes
Lets all rule ourselves
Let god save the queen
They're anti uk
