"No More Idols"

No more idols no tine gods Defy their corruption and spike their cogs Rid your head of promised dreams Banish all their fiendish schemes
NO MORE IDOLS NO TINE GODS
Wicked tongues still spew out lies We never learn although we try Brainwashed fools not quite dead Dig their graves no tears are she'd The world is filled with poisoned minds Plotters for power over all mankind Hitler wasn't the first angel of greed It was Adam and Eve who craved more than their needs Fools are born everyday They'll keep you like that if you let them have their way No more idols no tin gods Defy their corruption and spike their cogs
