Panic, all hell breaks loose
A battered body screams abuse
A plastic bullet ends his youth
A motherless son turns and pukes

Behind closed curtains
terror stares

What are they doing prowling round our streets
Who are they looking for with bullets in their breech Screaming shrieks fill the air
They turn off nowhere there's coppers everywhere

Behind closed curtains
terror stares

God saved the queen with blanks from a gun
But who is our protector when provoked to run
We still don't know why they surrounded the streets
But now they've withdrawn in full retreat

Behind closed curtains
terror stares
