So far away, I think about you every night
All through the day, you're all that's on my mind
So now I've got to try to get back to you some way Because deep down inside there's so much I want to say

And I'll run run run 'til I get back to you
Run run run, do what I have to do
Run run run 'til I get back in your arms again

Out on my own, I thought of what you mean to me
I want you to know, you're the one I need
So now I've got to try to get back to you some way
Because deep down inside there's so much I want to
say

And I'll run run run 'til I get back to you
Run run run, do what I have to do
Run run run 'til I get back in your arms again

And I'll run run run 'til I get back to you
Run run run, do what I have to do
Run run run 'til I get back in your arms again

I'll get across the distance somehow
I'm gonna make it to you soon...

And I'll run run run 'til I get back to you
Run run run, do what I have to do
Run run run 'til I get back in your arms again

And I'll run run run 'til I get back to you
Run run run, do what I have to do
Run run run 'til I get back in your arms again
