Delightfully receiving the evil praise

He has blackened their eyes for them only
To see his pathetic and wicked ways
His only purpose is destruction and death

Vicious intent

Extreme hatred towards the serpent
He is sly and polluting the young minds
Laughing when he sees confusion and fear

Vicious intent

Suffering in bondage
Dying spirit
But still denying the bloodshed that
Was made for mankind

Break the deal
You have made with evil
Crush the chains that will bind you eternally
Impossible by your own strength
The love from God will set you free

Vicious intent

Psalm 11
