I am searching in the darkness
For my love, she disappeared...
She left me without answers,
I know she will not return...
The night is full of roses,
Black roses in my heart...
I was too weak to follow here,
Now everything falls apart.

I was addicted to her smile
So much temptation in her eyes...
I love the way she touched me,
Her beauty made me weak.
She gave me so much pleasure,
She promised everything...
I know that she was lying,
But I can't resist...

I am searching in the darkness
For my love, she disappeared...
She left me without answers,
I know she will not return...
The night is full of roses,
Black roses in my heart...
I was too weak to follow here,
Now everything falls apart.

I'm too weak to carry on,
I leave the world, there's nothing wrong...
I have to pay the price for love,
Black Roses in my heart...
I choose the way into the night,
I never saw the light,
But now it's shining like the stars...
I wanna close my eyes...

I'm too weak to carry on,
I leave the world, there's nothing wrong...
I have to pay the price for love,
Black Roses in my heart...
I choose the way into the night,
I never saw the light,

But now It's shining like the stars...
I wanna close my eyes...

I'm too weak to cary on,
I leave the world, there's nothing wrong...
I have to pay the price for love,
Black Roses in my heart...

I'm too weak to cary on,
I leave the world, there's nothing wrong...
I have to pay the price for love,
Black Roses in my heart...
I choose the way into the night,
I never saw the light,
But now It's shining like the stars...
I wanna close my eyes...

I'm too weak to cary on,
I leave the world, there's nothing wrong...
I have to pay the price for love,
Black Roses in my heart...
I choose the way into the night,
I never saw the light,
But now It's shining like the stars...
I wanna close my eyes...
