The skies are black
All I can see is the darkness which lies ahead of me
Sickened eyes seem to laugh at me
My world has crumbled from disease
Sickened Eyes
Crushed and devoured from a power I can not see
Sickened Eyes
All is black all is dead
Sickened Eyes
All is black all is dead
I will prevail
Laugh you shall I will prevail
Life is wilting ahead of me like a dying rose
I will survive
I will prevail
Sickened eyes
Sickened eyes
A suffering species
A dying breed
Unknown seas
Untraveled lands
The skies are black all I can see is the darkness which lies ahead of me
All is black all is dead
Sickened eyes
