Dottie Dawn and Julie Jewel
Gonna ride a shooting star up to the moon
Julie waves to all the fans
In the back of a royal brougham pontiac
She said never have I felt like this before
When I heard the news I nearly hit the floor
Here I am in such good company
Elbow broomstick jab a chance to flee

Julie passed out on the train
Got dreams of angels dancing in her brain
Dottie Dawn and Julie Jewel
Gonna ride a shooting star up to the moon
She said never have I felt like this before
When I heard the news I nearly hit the floor
Here I am in such good company
Elbow broomstick jab a chance to flee
