Inside a bathroom stall
A number was on the wall
It said, "For a good time
Somebody give me a call"

I can't believe I got through
You said "Who the hell are you?"
You told me to back off
But I knew I had to pursue

[Chorus]:
Can I call you?
Can I call you again?
Can I call you
my girlfriend?
Can I call you?
Can I call you again?
Can I call you
my girlfriend?
My girlfriend
My girlfriend

I don't even know your name
And you're already playing games
Because the last time I called you
The voice said the number had changed

I'm sleepless here in my bed
Must have been something that I said
I think that I scared you
When I tattooed your name on my head

[Chorus]:
Can I call you?
Can I call you again?
Can I call you
my girlfriend?
Can I call you?
Can I call you again?
Can I call you
my girlfriend?

My girlfriend
My girlfriend

Can I call you?
Again
Can I call you?
Again
I wanna call you
Again
Can I call you?
My girlfriend

[Chorus]:
Can I call you?
Can I call you again?
Can I call you
my girlfriend?
Can I call you?
Can I call you again?
Can I call you
my girlfriend?
My girlfriend
My girlfriend
