I can hear you in my ear [x2]
Painting pictures in my head Reminiscing on what's dead Like what could I have said [x4]

I can hear you in my ear, painitng pictures in my head, reminiscing on what's dead, like what could I have said, baby stay don't go, wait don't leave, girl I can't go needs, my essential needs, girl your my, my essential needs, I need you here with me.

Teflon, what I gotta do to get you back, keep you running through my mind let me break it down every time I think about you and what we been through I could never see me doing it with out you I need you by my side, I need a chick down to ride laid back when I look into your eyes and the deep thought of what you say, when there's love in the tub, when there's back rubs and you say you want a thug who can do it like me

I'm reminiscing over everything we had I was there when you was mad I was there when you was sad girl, we used to sit back and laugh about the things in the past and you told me I was something that you never had, but it just didn't work I didn't think we would fall apart girl you still in my heart got you going through my mind painting pictures in my head now I remember when you said (I love you)

you back at the late night calls hear you say you got a when we fight and I'm grabbing and I'm holding on you tight in the middle of the night with the music down low and you can't say no and it start right here teflon in your ear reminiscing what we had and I wanna bring it back and it's just like that
