Verse.

You treat me different, cause I'm different.
And I'm just not self sufficient.
Like my problems just don't matter.
And you wont care till it happens.
You don't know my story no one does.
Like it's not your problem till it's drugs.
You will miss me when I'm gone.
Then you'll know that somethings wrong.

Pre Chorus.

I don't want to hold my breath.
Because I'm not just done yet.
I don't want to watch this end.
Because I still have some friends.

Chorus.

I'm not in denial, but I am fragile.
Would It hurt to show you care.
But I wouldn't exspect that much of you.
Because your incapable.
Of effection.

Verse.

I've learnt to look like I am happy.
And to put the past behind me.
And I know I must sound whinny.
If you don't like it skip the song.
I Wasn't put here to amuse you.
But it's easy to acuse you.
You will miss me when I'm gone.
Then you'll know that somethings wrong.

Pre Chorus.

I don't want to hold my breath.
Because I'm not just done yet.
I don't want to watch this end.
Because I still have some friends.

Chorus.

I'm not in denial, but I am fragile.
Would It hurt to show you care.

But I wouldn't expect that much of you.
Because your incapable.
Of effection.
Of effection.
Of effection.
Of effection.

Bridge.
If today was my last.
I'd forget about the past.
If today was my last.
I'd forget about the past.
If today was my last.
I'd forget about the past.
If today was my last.
I'd forget about the past.

Chorus.
I'm not in denial, but I am fragile.
Would It hurt to show you care.
But I wouldn't expect that much of you.
Because your incapable.
Of effection.
Of effection.
Of effection.
Of effection.
I'm not in denial, but I am fragile.
(Of effection...)
I'm not in denial, but I am fragile.
(Of effection...)
I'm not in denial, but I am fragile.
(Of effection...)
I'm not in denial, but I am fragile.
(Of effection...)
