Must be something in the way you move
And the way that you talk and the things that you do
'Cause you're failing to convince me
Your tired eyes are no disguise to the lies that you give
When you try to supply a truth you see
I don't know why

Well you're lying again
Well you're lying

Makes me question what we're fighting for
When the truth seems clear and the proof is near There's no need for war anyway
Your tired eyes are no disguise to the lies that you give
When you try to supply but you're failing
To surprise me

Well you're lying again
Well you're lying

'Cause believe me, all the things I've seen before
And the things I've been Believe me, there is so much to see in the world that's free
Believe me, there is no such room for things like greed you see
'Cause believe me, all you need to do is change your reality
Believe me, there is no such thing as greed in reality
Believe me, all the things I have foreseen and I do believe

Well you're lying again
Well you're lying

Tired eyes are no disguise to the way that you move
And the things you do when you're failing to improve

'Cause believe me, there is no such thing as truth in reality
Believe me, all the things I have foreseen and I know

I've been
Believe me, there is no such thing as truth in reality
Believe me, there is no such room for this in reality
