Underneath a setting sun
Something wicked your way comes
Who am I? Just a dream
Sent to take you, shake you, make you scream

Try to see, there, behind my eyes
Be in me, ah, you're hypnotized
Such a moon, rare, we shouldn't waste
Very soon, ah, I'll have a taste

Should I let you awaken?
I can't resist
Look around you
You're forsaken

You scream
But there's nobody to hear
It doesn't matter
It's only you and me
And all of your fears

So scream
A Halloween serenade
Illusions shattered
Wait 'til you're really afraid
You're gonna, ah, ah

Run and hide, please from my embrace
In the night, ah, I love a chase
Tell me no, tease, before we kiss
Nice and slow, ah, I live for this

Should I let you remember?
I can't resist
Gonna haunt you forever

You scream
But there's nobody to hear
It doesn't matter
It's only you and me
And all of your fears

So scream
A Halloween serenade
Illusions shattered
Wait 'til you're really afraid
You're gonna, ah, ah

Underneath the setting sun
Something wicked your way comes
Who am I? Just a dream
Sent to take you, shake you, make you scream

Try to see deep behind my eyes
Destiny, ah, won't be denied
Don't you know, sweet, you're what I need
Flesh and bone, ah, you're gonna bleed

Should I let you awaken?

You scream
It's only you and me

So scream
You're gonna, ah, ah

You scream
It's only you and me

So scream
