We're in a bad bad place, what are you doing here?
Are you the chaser or the chased?
Were you sent here to help me?
Or to seek out and destroy
We're a bad bad place,
I've been a bad bad boy

I look ahead and all I see is confusion
Feels like everybody is doing the same
While half the world is writhing in pleasure
The other half is writhing in pain

I'm in a bad bad place
Looks like you're still here
It is written on your face, you are living in fear
No creature can help you, no prayer he can pray
We're in a bad bad place
We made it that way.

I look ahead and all I see is confusion
Feels like everybody is doing the same
While half the world is writhing in pleasure
The other half is writhing in pain

Seems like you have to be ruthless
If you want to be loved
It's getting easier to take what you need
But losing it is just as tough.

We're in a bad bad place,
We're all following rules
The market has put in place
Are we really such fools?
We just want more and more
We don't count the cost
We're in a bad bad place,
Looks like the wrong side lost.

I look ahead and all I see is confusion
Feels like everybody is doing the same
While half the world is writhing in pleasure

The other half is writhing in pain

Writhing in pain...
