She loves to drive east in the evening when the sun is
All golden and low
When nobody knows she's arriving and there's nobody
Waiting at home
She told that she still has a lover but he's away for a
Year at a time
And if I wanted to I could go see her but she told me
She'd never be mine

She said that she loves to go dancing but she'd rather
Go dancing alone
She said that there's no point in dancing with someone
That you already know
Then she asked me if she met a stranger would I share
Her for only an hour
She said don't worry boy there's no danger I get Amnesia straight after a shower

And I know that you do what you say
And what you want while you're away
I just wish you wouldn't look at me that way
For so long, so long

She said don't wait for me in the darkness I can find
My way home if it's clear
By observing the stars and their movements and by Holding a shell to my ear
She said boy you'd better find yourself somewhere new
To go after your days work is done
Because me I love to drive east in the evening I can't Wait for the night time to come
I love to drive east in the evening you know it makes Me feel so alive
I can't wait for his sweet return and for the night
Time to arrive

And I know that you do what you say
And what you want while you're away
I just wish you wouldn't look at me that way
For so long, so long, so long
