When I miss you, I close my eyes and I can see that person better
I try to forget and erase, but I get reminded of that person more
I told myself a lie thinking that that person would come back
That person never said that she will be coming back, but all I can do is wait

The sin of loving that person a lot, the sin of loving you a lot
Because of you, and because of sin, I'm sick of waiting
The sin of loving you more, the sin of missing you a lot Because of you, and because of sin, I'm crying with pain... like this

I told myself a lie thinking that that person would come
That person never said that she will be coming back,
but all I can do is wait

a lot
The sin of loving you more, the sin of missing you a lot
pain...

Breaking up is fast, but forgetting is hard
The love is painful, and I am hurt alone

Rap
Did you have to leave that far away from me?
Did you have to leave that far away from me?
I shouldve loved you with all my life, but you forgot me now like a heartless person I should have loved you with my all, but now you live forgetting me

Hongki-
With all my life, the person that I love

That person only gave me tears and left The tough love which I was hurt alone

The sin of loving you more, the sin of missing you a lot
pain... like this
