Don't you know me I'm a savior and its time we discuss behavior Don't you know me the messiah and its time we set your soul on fire

I'd like to think that your the only one turn your back on my only son why did you keep on turnin' me away
why did you keep on turnin' me away and everytime you think you know to much your paralyzed to release my touch why did you keep on turnin' me away I can keep on turnin you away your kind your just a waste of time cause I know your kind your just a waste of time

Don't you know me I'm a savior
and its time we discuss behavior
Don't you know me the messiah

you try to say your not an open book I had another time to take a look
why did you keep on turnin' me away
why did you keep on turnin' me away
yes I know your kind your just a waste of time save your time your just a waste of time

I remember when you were so young you used to care so much about everything and everyone Yes I remember when she broke your heart You didn't call my name no you left it all so easily cause you changed now rearranged now you seem strange now and you don't believe in anyone cause it's over yeah it's over I'm coming home son

yes I know your kind your just a waste of time
yes I know your kind your just a waste of time
save your time your just a waste of time
