Although I often dream of you
I still have no idea
It's raining outside
Which day is it today
But I don't know
Where you went

*Although I have never doubted you
I still feel uneasy
Who is your one and only
Forgive me for doubting myself

~I understand the love I want
Will spoil me
Like a little child
Who only knows how to be bad in your arms
The love you want
Is not just reliance
Must be like a man
Even in bad weather
Leads a carefree life

Repeat *~,~
