No it's not alright,
To pretend there's nothing wrong
It's the same old fight
But it's gone on way too long
You slam the door
So I scream at you
But I'm ignored
Got me thinking what's the use?
It's true
It's too late for me and you

Now it's time, time, time
Time that we admit it
Gotta say, say, say
Say that this is finished
Tried to make it work
But we just made it worse
We took it way too fast,
We couldn't make it last
We were done, done, done
Done before we started
Now we'll both end up
Bruised and broken hearted
Tried to take it slow,
But we just lost control
We gotta face the facts
And say our last goodbye

So I'm heading home
But you probably saw me leave
When you text my phone
Saying "Don't you still love me?"
You'll never change
Cause I can't say no
We need a break
But you're making it so tough, to give you up
You know I'll never get enough

Now it's time, time, time
Time that we admit it
Gotta say, say, say

Tried to make it work
But we just made it worse
We took it way too fast,
We couldn't make it last
We were done, done, done
Done before we started
Now we'll both end up
Bruised and broken hearted
Tried to take it slow,
But we just lost control

She said that love's the answer
But it's never free
I said this love's a cancer
Cause I know it's killing me

No it's not alright
But it's gone on way too long
So we're finally moving on

Now it's time, time, time
Time that we admit it
Tried to make it work
Cause it was way too good to last
We were done, done, done
Done before we started
Now we'll both end up
Tried to take it slow,
But we just lost control
We gotta face the facts
Say our last goodbye
Our last goodbye
Say our last goodbye
Say our last goodbye.
