Here am I a beggar
I never thought it would turn out like this
I'd be begging for your kiss
But I must have your love

Here am I a beggar
I've reached the point of no return
I've gone too far where you're concerned
And I need your love

Here am I a beggar
Without your love I'm poor
But wealthy I would be
If you would eat my humble plea
And give your heart to me
Cause I must have your love

Here am I a beggar
Here am I a beggar
Without your love I'm poor
But wealthy I would be
If you would eat my humble plea
And give your heart to me
Cause I must have your love

Here am I a beggar

A beggar, beggar, beggar
