

Bobby Bare

"I've Lived A Lot In My Time"

Visit "I've Lived A Lot In My Time" on MotoLyrics.com

I've lived a lot in my time
I once had a mansion and lived in my glory but now I'm down to my last dime I once had a sweetheart but I was unfaithful yes I've lived a lot in my time
I fought the Grim Reaper down in the dark valley
I prayed when the sun wouldn't shine
I've looked through the bars of a cold lonely prison oh
I've lived a lot in my time
[choir]
I've been a soldier and I've been a rambler I once thought that everything was fine I've hoed in the cornfield I've picked in the cotton yes
I've lived a lot in my time I've walked with our Master down in the dark valley and wonderful peace I did find BBut now some day I'll journey to Eden's green pastures
Oh I've lived a lot in my time I've lived a lot in my time

Visit Bobby Bare page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.