(Roger Murrah)

Rain keeps right on pourin' it's another Monday mornin'
And another week to start and leave behind
Road keeps a gettin' longer the valley's a gettin' deeper
And the mountain's gettin' steeper that I'd climb.

Take me back to Cracker Jacks and blowin' up balloons
Skippin' rope and funny dough and GI Joe cartoons
Birthday parties low and hardy when you remember
Daniel Boone
Then you can send tomorrow to the moon.

Crowd of thoughts keep comin' have you heard about the bummin'
Is it too late to remember and fotget
Questions keep on risin' and it's not too surprisin'
That we haven't found the answers to 'em yet.

Take me back to Cracker Jacks and blowin' up balloons
Skippin' rope and funny dough and GI Joe cartoons
Birthday parties low and hardy when you remember
Daniel Boone
Then you can send tomorrow to the moon...
