

Bobby Bare

"Train That Never Runs"

Visit "Train That Never Runs" on MotoLyrics.com

(Jerry Foster - Bill Rice)

An empty railroad station is a lonely place to be
And a suitcase full of mem'ries is a heavy load to carry I've got no destination no special place to be
I'm just waitin' for a train that never runs
Lord, I'm waitin' for a train that never comes.

Tears above my ticket on a train that goes nowhere
I paid the price with heartaches a fare that seem so unfair
The silence of the moment is the only sound I hear
I'm just waitin' for a train that never runs
Lord, I'm waitin' for a train that never comes.

Measured time and cross ties the train of love is gone Down the tracks of yesterdays I see the rails at left on My mind is just a depot where I wait all alone
I'm just waitin' for a train that never runs
Lord, I'm waitin' for a train that never comes...

Visit Bobby Bare page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.