(Dallas Frazier - Earl Montgomery)

Forty some odd years ago a young man came to Memphis
Askin' about a rose that used to blossom in his world People never took the time to mind the young man's questions
Till one day they heard him ask a little green eyed girl.

What's your mama's name child, what's your mama's
name
Does she ever talk about a place called New Orleans
Has she ever mentioned a man named Buford Wilson
What's your mama's name child, what's your mama's
name?

Twenty some odd years ago a drunkard down in Memphis
Lost a month of life and labored to the country jail Just because he asked a little green eyed girl a question
And offered her a nickel's worth of candy if she'd tell.

What's your mama's name child, what's your mama's
Does she ever talk about a place called New Orleans
Has she ever mentioned a man named Buford Wilson
What's your mama's name child what's your mama's
name?

A year and some odd days ago an old man died in Memphis
Just another wayward soul the county had to claim Inside the old man's ragged coat they found a faded letter
That said you've got a daughter and her eyes are Wilson green.

What's your mama's name child, what's your mama's
Does she ever talk about a place called New Orleans

Has she ever mentioned a man named Buford Wilson
What's your mama's name child what's your mama's
name?

What's your mama's name child, what's your mama's

Does she ever talk about a place called New Orleans
Has she ever mentioned a man named Buford Wilson
name?...
