

Bobby Bare

"Yes Mr. Rogers"

Visit "Yes Mr. Rogers" on MotoLyrics.com

(Shel Silverstein - Fred Koller)

Yes Mr. Rodgers, I'm livin' in sin with your daughter
No Mr. Rodgers, we don't have separate rooms
Mr. Rodgers, I guess you could use one more scotch
and water
Gee Mr. Rodgers, do you have to be leavin' so soon?

No Mr. Rodgers, I ain't found work but I'm looking I'm sure Mr. Rodgers, you must have heard times are tight
Yes Mr. Rodgers, she works and I do the cooking
No Mr. Rodgers, I won't step outside and fight.

And I hope that Mrs. Rodgers' cough gets better Maybe she could phone sometime or write her daughter a letter
No Mr. Rodgers, but thanks a lot for the offer
If she wanted a ring I think I could buy one myself But you see that she's pleased with the plain string of beads I got her So you see Mr. Rodgers your daughter ain't goin' to hell.

And I hope that Mrs. Rodgers cough gets better Maybe she could phone sometime or maybe write her
daughter a letter
Yeah Mr. Rodgers, I'm a livin' in sin with your daughter
No Mr. Rodgers we don't have separate rooms
Mr. Rodgers, I guess you could use one more scotch
and water
Gee Mr. Rodgers, do you have to be leavin' so soon?

Yeah Mr. Rodgers, do you have to be leavin' so soon?...

Visit Bobby Bare page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.