now i don't jerk off in public, but i been out doing my self undisputed swag champ, that big h be my belt (x3) fresh pair of them jordan 3's all black givenci that snapback with that snake skin, you niggas gotta see don't c muthaf-cka we rollin some brown skin girls, n some beyonces ball like this, you gon' see the kind of hate, lebron see pop a band, throw a bill up, them strippers call me chauncey look so cool, in my leather jacket, they should be callin' me fonzi but i ain't got my collar up, i just got my dollars up big fish see little fish, and you little niggas get swallowed up shouldn't of been in this shark tank, ain't my fault if i eat them why would i wanna join them, when i always knew i could beat them keep a foot on they neck, fresh pair of them weak timb's ain't no love in hip hop, but still let you eat 'em came for the competition, but there wasn't much around i let you kiss the ring but you'll never touch the crown

swag champ i got the belt
when its done come talk to me you'll see i got the b b is for them big boys with the grown money and bad b!tches who ain't got to spend their own money

i said

now i ain't come here to be playin', showtime expect me out that hotel, that newest shit, ya i see em tryna check me
that new chain just came in, guess what, my neck be
funny i be going in, everytime they let me out ran thru that louie store, once i blow that, check me out threw me 2 tees, felt like they was tryna take me out no discrimination, i will still sweat your sexy out like 'em with that keisha ass, but gotta have that becky mouth rep my town but i'm hardly here gotta go in when i party here drinks so strong, i can barely lift em weed so loud, i could hardly hear love the way that track suit, lay on those shell toes money talks, you ain't got it, convo, hell no stick to being you boy, stay on yo, velcro hate to see ya'll been backwards, rondo, elbow came for the competition but there wasn't much around
