Well, uh, where would you be, yeah
If you'd kept on walking?
Oh, where would you be
If I'd stopped talking?

If I hadn't said those words
And if you hadn't heard
When I said
"I'm sorry, please forgive me"

Would you be happy?
Would you be crying?
Would you be crying, a while
Or would you be sad?

Where would you be
I say right now, Lord
If I hadn't called you back?

Well, uh, where would you be, yeah
If you'd kept on walking?
Ooh, where would you be right now
If I's stopped talking?

I only know I need you so
I wonder why do you want to go
After I've said
"I'm sorry, please forgive me"

I want to know, I want to know
Would you be happy?
Would you be crying, would you be crying
Or would you be sad?

I said I wanna know, I wanna know
Where would you be right now
Lord, if I hadn't called you back?
