Well I was sitting in my room
Hanging on my old guitar
Thinking about you baby
Acting like a movie star
When the doorbell rang
They said you were at the local bar

So I jumped and ran
As fast as a man can run
Don't know where
But the night was made for fun

If I ever loved a woman, baby you're the only one

So, let's rock this place
Let's rock this place
Let's rock this place
If everybody says alright

Let's rock this place
Let's rock this place
I want a whole lot of gimme, gimme
Til the whole room shakes and shimmies

Let's rock this place
Rock this place tonight

When I saw you in the corner
I knew you was waiting for me
Well you had the look about you
You surely make a blind man see
Maybe if you froze a million dollars
You'd give it to me all for free

So, let's rock this place
Let's rock this place
Let's rock this place
If everybody says it's alright

(Come on) Rock this place
Let's rock this place
I want a whole lot of gimme, gimme

Til the whole room shakes and shimmies

Let's rock this place
Rock this place tonight

(Instrumental break)

(Come on) Let's rock this place
Let's rock this place
Let's rock this place
If everybody says it's alright

Let's rock this place
Let's rock this place
I want a whole lot of gimme, gimme
Til the whole room shakes and shimmies

Let's rock this place
Let's rock this place tonight
