You oughta see my baby when she walk down the street
Upsettin' everybody she meet
She's twenty-three in the waist, thirty-eight in the hips
She got long black wavy hair and ruby-red lips

She's tuff
Ooh, she's tuff
My baby's tuff, she ruff and tuff
And that's tuff enough

She walk past a clock
The clock won't tell time
She walk through the college
Professor lose his mind

'Cause she's tuff
Ooh, she's tuff
My baby's tuff, she ruff and tuff
And that's tuff enough

The President said to my baby, "Come here, sweetheart
You can stop a world war even before it start
We know the enemy won't pull the trigger
When they walk out on the front line and they see your fine figure"

'Cause you tuff
Ooh, she's tuff
My baby's tuff, she ruff and tuff
And that's tuff enough

And that's tuff enough
And that's tuff enough
And that's tuff enough
