Under the blue blue moon
Under the blue blue moon

Bapbap.....
Bapbap.....

Remember kissing in the moonlight
When you were bringing me so h-h-high
All we were talking bout was true love
So why did it fade away

When you said bye, bye, bye
I said why, why, why
And I will wait for you
To change your mind

Under the blue blue moon
Under the blue blue moon
Under the blue blue moon
We're back again
Cause I can sense you're here
In distant years
Come over me again
So why deny our blue blue moon

Now you are back here in the moonlight
And I just need to ask you why-y-y
You're only answer this is true love
That I'm coming back again

And do you know why, why, why
I have cry, cry, cried
I have cried to every single song from ba

(Bapbap.....)

Under the blue blue moon
Under the blue blue moon
Under the blue blue moon
We're back again
Cause I can sense you're here

In distant years
Come over me again
So why deny our blue blue moon

Bapbap.....
Bapbap.....

Under the blue blue moon
Under the blue blue moon
Under the blue blue moon
We're back again
Cause I can sense you're here
In distant years
Come over me again
So why deny our blue blue moon
