You want an answer,
Well, What do you want to hear,
That I think you're special
And that I really care?
That's where you wrong,
'Cos I'll never be,
More than I expect from me!
The whole of me dedicated to your misery,
You're a whore, I'm a hero
Don't chew more than you can swallow
Don't chew more than you can swallow
Don't chew more than you can swallow
I stand corrected,
Sorry I made you feel that way,
Small word of comfort,
You're not the first
You try to be a match for me,
Don't waste your breath,
'Cos this is what you made me
The whole of me dedicated to your misery,
You're a whore, I'm a hero
Don't chew more than you can swallow
What I want, And what I need,
Is still something you can't bring me
Here's an answer to you question,
My lies as true as yours
Maybe not the one you wanted,
But the only one you'll get
You'll never be a match for me,
Don't waste your breath,
'Cos this is what you made me
So how does it feel?
This I do believe,
The lies that you concieve
What goes around comes around,
And twice as much from me
