The things you tried to make me believe in
To live, give, love and forgive
I'm trying...
Never painless, emotional emptiness
I always keep raping myself this way
Just darkness, I'm building myself a mountain of grief
I'm left by myself
Noose of guilt around my neck
Will there be someone here to listen?
Self destructive, or call it what you want
Self deception, I do it time and time again
True denial, Am I suicidal?
As my pain mounts up
I really can't tell anymore
Now I am
I'm left by myself
Fed up by thoughts
Will there be someone here to listen?
Self destructive, or call it what you want
Self deception, I do it time and time again
Can't put my life on hold
I need to catch my breath
Self destructive, or call it what you want
Self deception, I do it time and time again
Halls of emptiness, filled up with my mistakes
Still rejected, all that's left is loneliness...
I'm left by myself
Fed up by thoughts
There were no one here to listen
Regret
Forget
