I was the one that you laid out on the table torn from the heart that once was too blind now I see clearly the skull that smiles on the mantle this open wound that bleeds for the deception of me access denied

you swine
access denied
you swine
access... access... denied

you're a pig-face liar
you're a pig-face liar
and you cannot deny

I only wanted retribution yet you seem not to care like hybrid flies of filth you reek of the stench of your lies naked and bleeding I realize that you have forever buried me

I live inside the bitter sweet love of pain that is now thine

no love for you inside
no love

this cross you bare is always there it does not care if you are here it never sleeps, it lurks inside it hunts you down and you're silent screams are the only sound
this cross you bare
