It's time for an intervention
It's time for a little truth
It's time for a revolution
Grab a torch gonna light the fuse
Had enough of the desperation
Had enough of the crooked views
Had enough and it's time for action
3 2 1 no time to loose

Cuz this is time you gotta make your stand
Falls away let the casualties beat down

We are the ones for your consideration
We are the ones to be to recognized
We are the ones for your procrastination
Time now for us to get organized
Fall in line, revolutionary
Fall in line gonna win the war
Fall in line you are another number
Call the war!
1 2 3 4

[Chorus]

This time you gotta make your stand
Falls away let the casualties beat down
This time you gotta make your stand
Falls away let the casualties beat down

It's time for an intervention
It's time for a little truth
It's time for a revolution
Grab a torch gonna light the fuse
Had enough of the desperation
Had enough of the crooked views
Had enough and it's time for action
3 2 1 no time to loose

[Chorus]

This time you gotta make your stand
Falls away let the casualties beat down
This time you gotta make your stand
Falls away let the casualties beat down

[Chorus]

This time you gotta make your stand
Falls away let the casualties beat down
This time you gotta make your stand
Falls away let the casualties beat down
