I'm standing out in the rain thinking about you, again.
While, staring a hole into the sky.
Where did it all go wrong?
How can I end it all?
"Please, let me in", cause I want you to know; You don't need me and I don't Need you.

But I just don't know.
I can't let go.
Help me to regain myself.
I don't know why I can't decide what this feeling means to me.
So I can't let go..... yet.

When will I be satisfied?

Dreams will help me to come nearby.

But I just don't know.
I can't let go.
Help me get back on my feet.
I don't know why I can't define what these dreams want me to see.
But I just don't know.
I can't let go.
Help me to regain myself.
I don't know why I can't decide what these feelings mean to me.

And I can't let go yet.
Tell me how I can let this pass me by.

Fade away and stay.
