"Nobody Knows"

Visit "Nobody Knows" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm waiting here in patience
Am I waiting all in vain?
Will I see you? Will I touch you?
Will I hear you call my name?

[Incomprehensible] and make
Ten steps to every one step that I take

Nobody comes and nobody goes
No one is happy, and no one has woes
Everything lasting, ever the same
Nothing is ending, nothing can change

The good Lord always has been
Always will be ever the same
And confusion mixed with illusion
All years only turn again

With one and one hundred names
Had all the rooms, our key is to change

Nobody comes and nobody goes
No one is happy and no one has woes
Everything lasting, nothing can change
Nothing is ending, ever the same

And nothing's the same
It's never the same
