The human race is still immature. Taking beauty & making unpure. It's not just the fault of the perverts & freaks you also must blame the pastors & priest. All of their sermons & people repressed now sexuality becoming a mess. Violence for all & giving for free your divine ticket is your TV. So spread your legs & take it up the ass from propaganda fed to the mass. It's one little drop of blood today. One more tax we have to pay. One more right taken away. Actions mean more than the the words that I say. Freedom to portray hypocrisy is the only thing ever given to me brothers & sisters can't you see? It's time to fight back it's time to be free.
