"Twilight Zone"

The twilight zone is my last way

Thousands of moments race past my eyes

The teardrops wither away when I say goodbye

In heaven or hells fire in twilight zone

[Chorus:]

The twilight zone is my last way

The twilight zone the end of the game

The twilight zone is my last way

Endless drops of sinnerblood will run out my veins

And deep obscurity overcomes my brain

I throw out my pain into the darkness of twilight zone
